

INVITATION to the Conference on LCA and energy renovation of buildings of high architectural quality

On 23th of October German Danish Chamber of Commerce and InnoBYG invites You to a Conference at Aarhus School of Architecture. The Conference is held in the Auditorium from 8.30 to 17.30 and the target group is the Danish and German Construction Industry. Note that the spoken language at the conference is English.

Programme:

- 08:30 Registration and coffee
- 09:00 Welcome by Nicole Danielsen, German Danish Chamber of Commerce and Charlotte Darre, Cluster manager, InnoBYG
- 09:15 Energy Efficiency in Germany at a Glance by Paul Rydzek, eclareon GmbH
- 09:30 Aarhus sees a green future ahead by Karen Margrethe Høj Madsen, Project Manager Aarhus Municipality
- 09:55 From vision to sustainability by Hanne Tine Ring, Rambøll
- 10:20 Networking Break
- 10:50 German enterprises and consultants present their solutions and products suitable for low energy and sustainable buildings by Fieger Lamellenfenster GmbH, Linzmeier Bauelemente GmbH, Matrix Architektur GmbH, Parabel Energiesysteme GmbH
- 11:30 LCA and its use in practice by Dr. Christian Piehl, DGNB
- 12:10 LCA and Environmental Product Declaration (EPD) - process, legal requirements, EU by Mathias Høeg, Technological Institute
- 12:35 Lunch and networking
- 13:35 Panel session - Active House - buildings combining comfort, energy and sustainability
The panel debate will focus on how to integrate sustainable solutions into the city development and integrate sustainable design in modernisation. The debate will also focus on the development of methodologies in Germany and Denmark.
- The panel consists of:
-Prof. Dr. Natalie Eßig, Architektin, DGNB Auditorin, Hochschule München, Fakultät für Architektur—invited
-Projektkoordinatorin Simona Weisleder, Stadt im Klimawandel, IBA DOCK
-Professor, Carsten Rode, Head of section, Department of Civil Engineering, Section for Building Physics and Services
-Vibeke Grupe Larsen, Chief Consultant, Viegand Maagøe and owner of VGLCPH Aps
- 14:20 Energy optimisation in the Danish state. How Vester Voldgade 123 became the biggest passive house in the world by Eva Kunckel, Danish Building & Property Agency
- 14:45 Energy efficient refurbishment of heritage-protected buildings by Dr. Roswitha Kaiser, the State Conservation Office of Hessen, Germany
- 15:10 Networking Break
- 15:30 German enterprises and consultants present their solutions and products suitable for low energy and sustainable buildings by GeoClimaDesign AG, Kampmann GmbH, Koch Architekten 4greenArchitecture, Pural GmbH & Co. KG.
- 16:10 Dilemmas when renovating existing buildings of high architectural value by Julian Weyer, Partner, C.F Møller
- 16:35 Recapitulation followed by networking café
- 17:30 Thank you for today

Arranged by:

Supported by:

Read more about the conference. Use your Smartphone to scan the code.

Registration: Send an e-mail to sustainability2013@handelskammer.dk, stating name, e-mail, company and possible membership of either InnoBYG or German Danish Chamber of Commerce of the people you sign up for the Conference.
Price: DKK 200 for members of InnoBYG and Danish-German Chamber of Commerce. DKK 450 for non-members.
Read more at www.innobyg.dk/aktiviteter.aspx
Location: Aarhus School of Architecture, Auditorium, Nørreport 20, 8000 Aarhus C.